1.2.5 How to Access Audiobook Widget

After the user selects their desired chapter from the left-hand side, they will be presented with the plain text of the chapter as well as be shown the audiobook widget as shown below.

George Eliot's Fiction Audiobooks

The screenshot displays a web interface for George Eliot's fiction audiobooks. On the left, a dark red sidebar contains a list of chapters under the heading 'Index > Adam Bede > Book 1'. The chapters listed are: The Workshop, The Preaching, After the Preaching, Home and Its Sorrows, The Rector, The Hall Farm, The Dairy, A Vocation, Hetty's World, Dinah Visits Lisbeth, In the Cottage, In the Wood, Evening in the Wood, The Return Home, The Two Bed-Chambers, and Links. The main content area on the right is titled 'The Workshop' and contains the text of the chapter. A small audio player widget is overlaid on the text, showing the title 'Adam Bede - The Workshop', the source 'TTS', and playback controls (play, pause, stop, and a progress bar).

1.2.6 How to use Audiobook Widget

The audiobook widget offers the audiobook functionality of playing/pausing the audiobook, rewinding 30 seconds, and going forward 30 seconds. The widget also offers the functionality of choosing between the Text-to-Speech and LibriVox readings and being able to resize the actual widget by dragging on the widget's bottom right corner.
